Reltime is revolutionising the financial and digital services industry with its advanced Web3 platform. It has developed its own Layer-1 Proof of Authority Blockchain with zero transaction and gas fees.

Reltime's award-winning platform includes a range of applications such as non-custodian wallets, SuperApp, loyalty programs, payment solutions, lending services,

SUPERAPP

Reltime Web3 SuperApp integrates various decentralized applications (dApps) across Reltime's own gas-free blockchain platforms, offering users a unified interface for a wide range of services such as finance, social media, gaming, and more. It leverages blockchain technology to ensure security, transparency, and user sovereignty, emphasizing users' control over their data and digital assets.

By combining functionalities from different sectors within the blockchain ecosystem, it aims to provide a comprehensive and seamless user experience. This concept represents the evolution of digital platforms towards a more integrated and decentralized web.

WHY RELTIME?

Our team is at the forefront of Web3 innovation, crafting comprehensive Layer 1 solutions that form the foundation of our SuperApp. Our SuperApp connects a spectrum of smart contracts and dApps, providing a single portal for diverse blockchain services tailored to individual client needs.

Security is paramount, with our platform designed to be robust against threats, scalable to evolve with our clients, and supportive of their growth. With a global reach, Reltime's collaboration with top-tier blockchain entities reinforces our expansive suite of services, ensuring clients have sustained support and resources for success in the Web3 space.
